Description

Queenstown is a world-renowned destination for skiing, offering some of the best skiing and snowboarding experiences in the Southern Hemisphere. With a picturesque backdrop of snow-capped mountains and stunning natural scenery, it's easy to see why so many people flock to this winter wonderland.

Coronet Peak is the closest ski resort to Queenstown, located just a 20-minute drive from the town center. It is known for its excellent grooming and night skiing, making it a popular choice for both locals and tourists.

Aside from skiing, Queenstown offers plenty of other winter activities, such as snowshoeing, ice-skating, and snowmobiling. There are also numerous après-ski options in town, with a range of restaurants, bars, and cafes to choose from.

Skiing in Queenstown is an experience not to be missed. With stunning scenery, excellent skiing conditions, and a range of ski resorts to choose from, it's easy to see why it's such a popular destination for skiers and snowboarders from around the world.

Itinerary

Day 1

✈ Australia - Queenstown

Make your way to the airport and board your flight to Queenstown. On arrival to Queenstown, if you have chosen the car hire option, collect your vehicle, if not make your way to the hotel and check in.

Queenstown, New Zealand, sits on the shores of the South Island's Lake Wakatipu, set against the dramatic Southern Alps. Renowned for adventure sports, it's also a base for exploring the region's vineyards and historic mining towns. There's bungee jumping off Kawarau Gorge Suspension Bridge and jet-boating on the Shotover and Dart rivers. In winter, there's skiing on the slopes of The Remarkables and Coronet Peak.

The rest of the day is yours at leisure.
